We hope you all had a wonderful Labor Day weekend. Last week we had our first school dance for K-2 and it was so much fun watching the students have fun. This month also brings the fall festival and we will be sending out information in the coming weeks. We finished our first Math and Reading units last week and will move on to new material.

Check out what we're learning each week on page 2 of the newsletter.

Thank you for continuing to work on Fry Word Lists with your student.

There are a lot of other upcoming events at Freedom so make sure you check out the sidebar as well as your child's planner each night as these events draw nearer. If you haven't sent your paperwork in yet, please do so. If you can't find the paperwork, don't worry, we'll be sending
